

Privacy policy

The Air Care Alliance respects your privacy.

We will not sell email addresses or other information provided to us and we will not share it with others other than as requested by you or as required for our internal processes.

If you fill out a form and provide contact or other information it will only be sent to those groups or persons that you indicate should see it.

Please do NOT provide confidential medical or other information to us or in our forms because once you have us send it to a group there is no way for us to control where it may go from there. Simply indicate the nature of your need and interest and each group you have us contact will ask you for any additional information needed.

We may share your information with our own staff members for administrative purposes and in order to improve our website and referral system and our operations, and we may use your information to contact you to clarify your need or for other purposes related to our work. We may contact you at a later time to determine if your need was met or if you have any comments about our website and referral system.

To further protect patient confidentiality we ask that the names of any patients only include first name and the first letter of the last name.

If you have any further questions about our privacy policy please contact us.

This website has been built thanks to generous support from Gary, Jan, Chris, and Matt St. Peter of Operation Angel Planes and also from the Wolf Aviation Fund and the Aircraft Owners and Pilots Association
