Volunteer Pilots Rally During Coronavirus Pandemic

ACA MEMBERSHIP

If you are a non-profit charitable aviation organization and would like to learn more about becoming a member of Air Care Alliance,

Earlier this year when the coronavirus pandemic shell shocked the American health system, volunteer pilots did what they do best—they climbed in their airplanes and set out to make a difference. Charitable aviation organizations all across the country have stepped up to help communities in need. A recent impact survey conducted by Air Care Alliance shows that

NEW & IMPROVED REFERRAL SYSTEM COMING

A key function of ACA is to provide referrals to charitable aviation organizations for people seeking services and volunteers interested in helping. ACA is excited to announce big improvements coming to our online inquiry and referral system!

The planned enhancements will deliver significant added benefits by improving the quality of referrals, as well as the volume, to bring even more value to organizations, and more importantly, to the people seeking your services.
